NEWS AND GOSSIP OF FRATERNAL CIRCLES IN WASHINGTON

Masonic Affairs.

Past Master Delos W. Thayer, in charge of arrangements for the fraternal visit of King Solomon Lodge, No. 31, to Meridian Lodge (Richmond), on Monday, October 25, reports that more than 26. tober 25, reports that more than fifty will be in the party, including the ladies. While the members of Meridian Lodge are entertaining their guests, the ladies will attend a theater party, and at 3 Templar, as a result, it is said, of splen-o'clock the entire party will be banquet- did work on the part of the ways and Virginia will be present o'clock on the morning of the riving in Richmond at 1:10 o'clock.

Lodge, who is reputed to be one of the prits of the year, for the peace which best ritualists in Washington, has according nation enjoys, and to pray for cepted an invitation to confer an import-order to be present at these meetings.

Columbia Chapter.

After the business meeting of Co- 2.

day evening, October 22.

in making these events successful. E. Burrows, 1836 Ingleside Terrace,

Fidelity Chapter No. 19 is planning to

"That Blonge Person. Worthy Matron Stella Knapp exends order to be present. Several candidates meeting is scheduled,

An interesting program is announced for the regular meeting of Areme Chapter No. 10 next Wednesday night. The de-grees of the order will be conferred upon several candidates by Worthy Matron Miss Maud Fellheimer and Worthy Patron Chas L. Hosch and their official line. The evening's programe will be quite unusual as the worthy matron expects the candidates to furnish the entertainment. Just what stunis they are expected to perform is not announced but much is auticipated.

man of the endowment committee of the chapter, will also have some orunique surprises for the evening. Refreshments will later be served in the banquet room and all members of the order are cordially in-

The Chapter's Rummage Sale during the past week is announced as a splendid

The Grotto.

No. 24, F. A. A. M., and Friendship Chapter, O. E. S., at Tennallytown. In Prophet Charles A. Stevens, in costume, gave a dialect monologue, Past Monarch, John H. Shreve recited "Casey at the a masterly manner, and Prophet P. V. Keating delighted the at with a number of witty stories. grand finale Prophet Fred H Kramer glee club and band joining in the chorus. The grotte has received an invitation to attend the fair of the Temple Association of Odenton Lodge No. 20, at Nava! Academy Junction October 21, 22

An active sampaign is now on for cancidates for the fall ceremonial to be held on October 25 at the New Willard Hotel. The word has gone forth to "get candilarge class is Monarch E. W. Libbey has requested every prophet to get one candidate, and the men on the firms line are not or looking any eligible prespect. The full ritualistic ceremony will be exemplified, a musical skit, different from anythin heretofore staged by the Grotto, will be produced, and the band will render sev-

Masonic Bowling Association.

President Haas, of the Masonic Duckpin League, has been absent from schedto the G A R encumpment. He has again but in an appearance, however, and promises to be present at as man; sames as possible until the end of the a recent meeting held in the Ma sonic Temple the new and revised sched-ule, including the entire twenty teams, was adopted and is now in the hands of of the new schedule can get soon as issued by applying to the sexeral captains of teams or to the secre-tary of the association. It is expected that the schedule wil be ready for diswithin a few days.

shown, and many members of the various lodges of this city may be found at the lodges are welcome, whether their lodge is represented in the league or not.

Lebanon Lodge.

The ladies' night held by Lebanon great success. The lodge room was ber being unable to gain admittance. The uldence after being welcomed by Forshipful Master M. B. Yerger enjoyed the following program. Organ recital by Brother J. B. Wilson, selection by isdell, reading by L. Monta Bell, bary-tone solo, Mr. Fred C. Schaffer; fancy Miss Marion Ballanger; tenor solo, R. E. rection of Brother E. Redfield; bass sold At the conclusion of the entertainment the guests repaired to the banwas gorgeously decoated for the occasion, where light re- | pected.

Knights Templars.

ed at one of Richmond's leading hos- means committee on petitions, held an telries, at which time it is expected that enthusiantle conclave Friday night. Re-several members of the Grand Lodge of ports were read by the respective chairbe present.

will leave Washington at 10 which were enthusiastically received, the morning of the 25th, arfollowing which eloquent addresses were Iving in Richmond at 1:19 o'clock. delivered on the good of the order.

The suggestion that the members of the commendery, in full Templar uni-Washington Centennial Logs will com-fer the E. A. degree at its stated com-munication Wednesday evening, the senior warden heading the official line, sonic Temple, ar or near Thanksgiving senior warden heading the official line, sonic Temple, ar or near Thanksgiving Past Master Delos M. Carter, of Acacia Pay, to offer thanks to God for the worthy Matron Jeanette Y. Lashborn announces work and advancement of the line officers at a special meeting on October 26.

She cordially invites all members of the ways and means committee, and a large ways and means committee, and a large ways and means committee. number of the more active Sir Knights Sovereign Grand Lodge. of the commandery, received favorable consideration:

Resolved Columbia Commandery No.

lumbia Chapter. No. 15, bein last Mon-day evening, the evening was spent in jurisdiction in particular at heart, te-important business, which should have playing games and Brother B. P. spectfully requests the Grand Com-playing games are adding. The worthy mandery of the District of Columbia to the small altendance these matters in some file. matron called the attention of the to consider the suggestion of holding necessarily had to go over to some fur-members to the several events which a joint Templar libation service on the the chapter is to hold next week, viz next natal day of Him under whose Theater party, at Poli's Theater Christian banner we are enlisted, in subject of considerable criticism by many of their rulers, as, in the Petition of Monday, October 18. Rummage Sale, order that the fact that those who members of the association. It was suggested by some that the lodges should in the regum of Charles II, the revolution and lowly Nazarene, who suffered death and requests can be member to assist on the cross that the sins of the world these events successful.

The Florat Circle of Columbia Channer blood by suggested by some that the lodges should in the regum of Charles II, the revolution and lowly Nazarene, who suffered death and representatives who will attend in the regum of their rulers, as, in the Petition of the association. It was suggested by some that the lodges should in the regum of Charles II, the revolution and lowly Nazarene, who suffered death and representatives who will attend in the regum of their rulers, as, in the Petition of the same of the association. It was suggested by some that the lodges should in the regum of Charles II, the revolution and lowly Nazarene, who suffered death and representatives who will attend in the regum of their rulers, as, in the Petition of the same of the association. It was suggested by some that the lodges should in the regum of Charles II, the revolution are long to the rulers and lowly nazarene. The Floral Circle of Columbia Chapter, blood he poured out on Calvary, may to 15, will hold its next meeting to- make public demonstration of the fact No 5, will hold its next meeting to-morrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. that Christian Masonry in Washington is alive; that it stands for God and Jesus Christ; that it defends innocent maidens and protects helpless widows and orphans; that it wars upon obscenity and profamity; that it is ar-ray d against vio in every form, that its mission is to uplift mankind and coinedy) at its meeting to be he'd Tues dispense charity; that it stands for the day evening October 15, 131%. a cordial invitation to members of the God according to the dictates of their order to be present. Several candidates conscience, that it is pledged to spread are due for initiation and an interesting the Christian religion by peaceful meeting is scheduled. men through the establishment of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, which services should be public nature, to which Ten public nature, to which template conferred. Noble Grand Edwin Allan contralized oppression, the one section Knights should be requested to attend Knights should be requested to attend in full Templar uniform, and that a members of the degree staff will in to work to exclude the South from the Sir Knight, well qualified for the duty, clude P should be designated to secure full and John J.

> Christ, and the Grand Commandery is courteously urged to encourage the wear-ing of the same on Templar occasion, and tor William J. Rich will be present. that it is suggested that steps be taken form that its cost may be materially recommandery taking part in the present month. revival are Past Commanders Charles E. Baldwin. Alexander Grant, Frank A. Sebring. Frank E. Gibson, Charles A. Stewart, Emmet C. Elmore, Walter Klop- Metropolis Ledge, No. 16, are now lonished entertainment to an appreciative fer. J. Harry Cunningham, Seaton W. cated in their new quarters in the old audience last Wednesday evening, the opening night of the joint fair being conducted by William R. Singleton Ledge, Rolling Richard Gasch, Charles R. Matthews, E. where they have an eventor. They now ducted by William R. Singleton Ledge, No. 16, are now long ministration and of the Southern States in the sixtues was always an appeal from and Sir Knights Charles R. Matthews, E. where they have an eventor. They now ducted by William R. Singleton Ledge, No. 16, are now long in the sixtues was always an appeal from the sixtues was always and peal from the control of the southern States in the sixtues was always and peal from the sixtues was always and peal from the sixtues was always and peal from the sixtues was always and appeal from the sixtues was always and peal from the Chapter, O. E. S., at Tennallytown. In addition to selections by the Gretto McCarthy, Colin E. E. Flathers, Charles announces an application this week as Band and Glee Club a solo was rendered by Prophet Charles D. Shackleford. by Prophet Charles D. Shackleford. by Roberts A. Stevens in costume. phrey. Edwin Wolfe, Frederick Yates, Edwin S. Schmid, Melvin A. We Harry Evans, and W. W. Jermane.

Royal Arcanum Councils.

Conneils meeting this week are Mor day evening Ouray Council in Pythian Temple: Wednesday evening, Municipal Council in New Masonic Hall, Eighth streets northeast, and Francis Scott Key Council in Potemac Bank Building, Thirty-second and M streets, theorescown: Friday evening, Analostan Council in Pythian Temple, and Farragut Council in Navy Building.

National Council, at its meeting on Monday last, voted to challange Kismet pointed a committee to visit Kismet Council at its next meeting and present membership were read and an informal reception was tendered to Victor G. Far-rell, who was recently married. The council is arranging for an identification meeting on November 8 and for a speber 2 Among those present were Past Grand Regents E. B. Eynon, John L. uled games for about ten days, devoting Beatle, and M. Bartow Mercer, and was his time to the entertainment of visitors Messrs. White, Allen, Cleveland, Evans, trip. Barber, Nash, Free, Osburn, and Far-

Oriental Conneil.

Oriental Council on last Tuesday evening received three applications for mem-bership and authorized the publication council paper. Past Grand Regent J. Ed. Swaine armounced the final plans for the class night for the initiation of candidates on October 28. W. B. Hill performed the duties of collector of the council in the absence of Robert E. Logan, who is spending a short vacation at Elmira, N. Y. The council took appropriate action on the death of Smith Thompson, which occurred recently in Toronto, Canada, A cordial welcome was extended to "Cliff" Clarridge, George Heisley, W. W. Griffith and W. F. Polly, Brief remarks were made by Grand Re-gent E. A. Niess, Passed Regent A. B. Keefer, Secretary Corbin Birch and Vice Regent J. M. Hammerly. After the business session Orator V. P. Dooley and Lodge on its last meeting night was a Guide L. C. Morrison escorted those present to a neighboring moving-picture

Capital Camera Club.

The Capital Camera Club will hold its first annual motion-picture outing at Great Falls. Va., on Sunday, October 24. (In case of rain the first clear Sunday

Every camera user in this vicinity, both professional and amateur, is invited to be present and bring their cameras.

Motion pictures will be made of all those present at 2 p. m. and will be shown later at the club rooms, 712 Eleventh street northwest, and one or more of the local theaters. A large attenance is ex-

Doings of the Odd Fellows.

Calendar.

LODGES, Monday-Union, No. 11; Beacon, No. 15; Langdon Ko. 25. business.
Tuesday.—Wa-hington, No. 6: Golden Rule, No. 21.
Frand Lodge visitation: Amity, No. 27. business: Jount Pleasurt, No. 29. social.
Wodnesday.—Eastern, No. 7. third degree: Harnouy, No. 2: Friendrhip, No. 12; and Federal City, Columbia Commandery, No. 2, Knights

No. 20, Fundares.
Thursdas - Columbia, No. 10, business; Covenant, No. 15, third degree, Salem, No. 22, business, Friday - Central, No. 1; Metropolis, No. 16, and Saturday-Chafon Washington, No. 1, social, ENCAMPMENTS.

Wednesday Mount Nets, No. 6, business. REBEKAHS, Monday-Naomi, No. 1, and Ruth, No. 2, busi-

Friday-Martha Washington, No. 5, and Dorcas

have been under preparation for some has returned from San Francisco, Cal., where he attended the session of the

The quarterly meeting of the Odd Fel-of grand officers, raid their annual grand scotland and Wales (and the hardiest visitation to Phoenix Lodge, No. 28, on last Friday evening at froming, D. 1.

The officers of the lodge gave a splendid rendition of the work in which they were examined by the grand representatives, the acting grand secretary and grand treasurer reported the books of faxation was but in line with Hampden's grand treasurer reported the books the secretary and treasurer to be in ex-cellent condition. J. D. Voakley, grand treasurer, made the address of the evenful inc. At the close of the

Will Confer Degree.

A regular meeting of Mount Fiensant Lodge, No. 29, will be held Tuesday night. ld be of a Lodge, No. 2, will be held Tuesday night, foundation principles of adherence to field. The order had previously established and benyon streets north- written guarantees of reserved rights lished, and conducted with great aucchide Past Grand William G. Thomas, should be designated to secure full and John J. Verleter, William W. Adams, complete publicity of the services, be- Herbert L. Malthy, William C. Wood. and imediately after they take Past Grand E. R. Armentrout, Edward Resolved further. That Columbia Com- Edgar B. Thomas, Raymond L. Hubbard. nders believes in the Tennslar uniform. Robert L. Seav. Frank E. Metcair and being emblematical of the Soldier of Past Grand H. K. Averill, who has the distinction of being the oldest active Odd dence against George III. The article been arranged, which will be followed Considerable interest is being manibe rolled between members of Mount Pleasant and Eastern Lodge. The con-

Lodge Has New Quarters.

Roberts, Robert J. Bell, Benjamin F. ride to the lodge room door and they are resort in defensive warfare, teamber thatles E. Foster, James S. especially invited to attend. The lodge In a brief introductory quinters hold a husiness session on Wednesday evening, preparatory to their grand visitation, which will occur on Wednesday evening. November 17, at Fourteenth of the Confederacy and its under and Kenyon streets northwest, it is said principles has much to do with they are preparing something out of the # Notes of Rebekeh Lodges.

The Rebekah assembly held a special session last week and was presided over by the president, Mrs. Annie Griggsby, in which much business of an important nature was transacted and incidently the her of past noble grands from the several lodges, and a report from the theater committee was presented which was very gratifying to the members of the assem It showed that the committee done excellent work and more than $100 had been cleared by this committee.

Last meeting of Esther Rebekah Lodge, summer, and are back again ready to step into the winter's work. Each one was requested to tell about his or her trip. Those who had been to the Far Mr. Ralph Cady and recitations by Mr. West told of the wonders of that part of Churles O. Shaw. Mr. William E. Brockthe country. Visitors to the Middle of their good times, of the lodges visited, and their methods of procedure and "hardships." Some wandered down to the Far "South" and brought glowing accounts of what they had seen and done And now as all are once more togethe to the wheel of friendship, love and truth. The sixty-fourth Rebekah anniversary which was held in the auditorium of Odd Fellows' Hall last Thursday evening was a plendid success in every Much credit is due the committee on arrangements, as they left nothing undone that could have contributed a further success of the anniversary. The program could not have been improved upon, and at the close the young people enjoyed an hour of dancing, and the decorations of the hall were artfully ranged and all the flowers used for dec members of the order who were unable to attend the anniversary.

Mrs. Cora B. Anderson, a member of Naomi Rebekah Lodge, died last Wednesday night after undergoing an opera-tion at the George Washington Hospital. Personal.

Fred D. Stuart Encampment, No. 1.

being cared for and visited by this en-

Harry, the son of Capt, and Mrs. F A. Royse, was on Wednesday last taken from the hospital to his home, 414 Tenth street northeast. He is slightly improved

Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus Cole, of Har mony Lodge, No. 9, have just returned from a three months' sojourn on the

First of Lecture Series.

To a large and interested audience at Confederate Home, 1322 Vermont avenue on Tuesday evening, the first of a series of articles of the two-year historical course of Washington Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, was read by Mr. Lloyd T. Everett, an attorney-at-law of The annual grand visitation to Golden Heritage: Growth and Development of Institutional Self-government."

The annual grand visitation to Golden Heritage: Growth and Development of Institutional Self-government."

Mr. Everett explained that this part been under preparation.

jurisdiction to attend the communication.

Enstern Star.

The annual grand visitation of the grand marron and grand patron, accompanied by the other grand officers to St.

John's Lodge Chapter, No. 18, will be on Friday evening, October 22, at 8 o'clock. Worthy Matron Jeanette Y. Lasshborn announces work and advancement of the lass of the grand advancement of the lass of the lass of the grand Representative Home.

John's Lodge Chapter, No. 18, will be on friday evening, October 22, at 8 o'clock. Worthy Matron Jeanette Y. Lasshborn announces work and advancement of the lass of the lass of the grand Representative Home.

John's Lodge Chapter, No. 18, will be on lass of the grand advancement of the lass of the grand advancement of the lass of the grand Representative Home.

John's Lodge Chapter, No. 18, will be on lass of the grand advancement of the lass of the grand advancement of the lass of the grand matron and grand patron, accomposite to the visitation. Opening of the work required of them.

Enstern Star.

Lenjamin F. Larcombe, and Dr. Fredden, Committee has guarantees, amongst the English-speak to the visitation: Opening, Turner's orchestrs; solo (with obligation of the visitation: Opening, Turner's orchestrs; solo (with obligation in stitutional and institutional and institutional guarantees, amongst the English-speak to the visitation: Opening, Turner's orchestrs; solo (with obligation in structure, at the entertainment committee has guarantees, amongst the English-speak to the visitation of the visitation: Opening, Turner's orchestrs; solo (with obligation in stitutional and institutional and institutional guarantees, amongst the English-speak to the visitation: Opening, Turner's orchestrs; solo (with obligation in grand patron, something subsequent to the visitation of the visitation of the visitation: Opening, Turner's orchestrs; solo (with obligation in grand patron, something subsequent to the visitation of the visitation. Opening, Turner's orchestrs, amongst the English-speak to the visitation of th ribes, both on the Continent of Europe and in these islands, by degrees, the extends a cordial invitation to all mempeople lost much of their pristine liberties, their kings and other rulers arrotating the powers of government to themselves, resulting often in iron-fisted. The ways and means committee had Resolved, Columbia Commandery, No.

2. Knights Templar, baying the interheld last Monest of the order in general, and this Friday evening, October 5, to transact tween them and the Continent, retained earlier time.
Crossing the broad Atlantic (a second "wall of water" protecting free institu Grand Master W. J. Rich and his corps tions; the people of England, Ireland, faxation was but in line with Hampden's immortal stand against the Ship-money ex-ful opposition of South Carolina, in 1830-23, against the tariff exactions of hose times, and that the (attempted) praceful secession of the Southern States in 1800-61 was bottomed on these same be sgainst unconstitutional measures and cass, an orthan home at that city, common territories, which had been won the common blood and freasure of all the sections, and the John Brown raid of 1859, widely indorsed in the North. being on a par with the inciting of "doinsurrections amongst charged in the Declaration of Indepenwas written in the spirit of President by a smoker, a social hour and refresh-R. that the American Revolution was beginning, not a culmination. It was pointed out that written safe-

Keep torical committee states that this was ar new the first of a series of ten special articles or addresses on the general subject of Confederate principles and history. five to be given during the season o Mount Nebo Encampment, No. 6, will 1915-16, and the remainder during 1916-17. These are designed on the plan of showgrand ing that history, properly read, is the teaching of experience; that the story of the Confederacy and its underlying proper solution of the problems of today as drawn from the events of the nast for the good of the future. It is under stood that some of the future articles of the series will touch on present international questions, the conduct of settle disputes between nations by peace ommittee and author of "Legal and Hiscision." and of other works on American history, is to prepare the second article of the series, for December 14, on the nature and status of the Constitu government thereunder. Admission to the lectures is by season tickets, which No. 5, was a "Home-coming Evening" can be obtained from the adjutant of for members who had been away during the camp, 122 Vermont avenue, or from at a recent convention, and Past Chan-the summer, and are back again ready other officers. other officers. The program was concluded by piano solos by Miss Ethel Bsockman, songs by West man, commandant, presided,

Confederate Reunion.

Harry Heth Camp. No. 119, C. V., of Virginia, a member of the Camp Confederate Veterans member of the Grand ginia, will be represented at the reunior in Fredericksburg, Va., on October 19-21 by Commander Fred Beall, Col. Hillary A. Herbert, Maj. Robert W. Hunter Leigh Robinson, Magnus S. Thompson William A. Gordon, John T. Callaban William A. Gordon, John T. Callahan Thomas W. Hungerford, W. L. Wilker James T. Petty, Capt. D. C. Grayson G. T. Drake, Capt. W. W. Chamberlain E. Pegues, F. M. Angello, Rev. A. Morton. Many of these will be ters, beside other members and friends

United Swiss Societies.

The United Swiss Societies of the Disrict of Columbia are making preparas to be held in the Old Masonic Temple Vednesday, November 17, 8:30 p. m. The central committee, composed of representatives from the four societies is a fellows: Mr. J. Bruegger, chairman; Mrs. M. Schmidt, vice chairman; Miss Pauline Holer, secretary; Mr. J. Egloff treasurer: Mr. Ed. Schmid, Mr. B. Rick-enbacher, Mr. T. Picard, Mr. E. Sychrowheld an interesting meeting last Tues-day night, in which many matters of interest were discussed. It was reported that Grand Patriarch P. H. Leary, who is still confined to his room with a sore foot and limb in the confined to his room with a sore rer. Mr. O. Balestra. Mr. F. C. Luithi, foot and limb, is but little improved, but it is hoped that he will soon be able to be out again. Mr. Charles E. Brosee, 1 member of an encampment in Maysville, Stausfacherin. Union Helvetia, and the Ky., is still confined to his home. He is

Knights of Pythias Events.

Calendar.

LODGES.
Monday-Amstauth, No. 23; Century, No. 30, grand visitation.
Tuesday—Wetster, No. 7: Excelsior, No. 14; Capital, No. 3: Asyrthe, No. 25.
Wednesday—Mount Vermon, No. 3; Equal, No. 17.
Tuursday—Franklim, No. 2
Friday—Syracusians, No. 10, week. Rathboneuperior, No. 29, rage rank. PYTHIAN SISTERS.

Monday-Past Chiefs' Association, monthly meet Wednesday Friendship Temple, No. 9, initiation, Friday-Rathbone Temple, No. 8, initiation.

The annual visitation of Grand Chancellor William A. Kimmel and associate officers of the grand oldge will be made to Century Lodge, No. 30, tomorrow night. The committee on arrangements for Century Lodge, headed by Past Grand Chancellor Mark Stearman, made a report at the special convention Monday t 8:20. The officers: Mr Everett explained that this was an night, and its was announced that the eparation for some outline history of the rise and progress following program would be presented to give a good ren- of free institutions, as protected by sol- on the occasion of the visitation: Openfollowing program would be presented on the occasion of the visitation: Open-despotism, as in the case of France and ta large attendance at its last meting. in large part from invasion and constant much progress was made with the work war by the "wall of water" flowing be-of arranging for the winter's amusement tween them and the Continent, retained features. The committee has appointed B. Hardy, William A. Kimmel and C. E.

Ascalon Temple, No. 81, Dramatic Orler Knights of Khorassan, has announced that the temple will hold a ceremonial n Wednesday night. November the meeting of the temple Monday night plans were outlined for the event

The ctockholders of the Knights of various colonial charters; that the revolt stock of the association in the sum of 1756 from unlawful or unconstitutional $19,000. Past Grand Chanceller John M. Klint presided and John B. Dickman, J. E. Wilson and Israel Summers acted as in the time of Charles I, as was the suc- the question to be considered was postponed to a future date

Home for Old Men Dediented. The Pythians of Ohio dedicated a hom fer old men a few days ago at Spring-

Webster Lodge, No. 7, will give a "campfire reunion" Tuesday night for of the lodge together, that they may become better acquainted and create closer friendship. The committee in charge, composed of Cleveland Kennicutt. us." Edward Saxton and W. C. Clark nounce that an entertaining program has Capital Ledge. Capital Lodge, No. 24, will hold its reg- Hall to greet four candidate- for adop-ular convention Tuesday night. Follow- tion. The short form of adoption was If was pointed out that winter against against ing regular business the members will conferred upon O. E. Collier, Richard, K. of C. Hall this morning at 11 o'clock, rulers, and local and State rights against enjoy cigars and discuss matters per. Hewett, Charles H. Gibbs, and Sam Parentein, Seven applications for memclous to preserve popular rights against rights against rulers, and local and State rights against representative and local and State rights against enjoy eights and discuss matters pertentalized encroachments, and that the appeal of the Colonists in 176, of Carolina in the tariff crisis of Jackson's additional transfer of the good of the order were delivered action taken. The members of this control of the Southern States. minstration and of the Southern States by Edward Wilson, James S McCarthy, camp are showing much interest in last Tuesday evening brought out a fine in the sixtus was always an appeal from George Sollers, A. E. Gorham, and others, the class adoption to be held in this attendance and hearty greetings were extracreful settlement of questions in Suggestions were made as to entertain- city on Neverther 5, and numerous ap- tended to the newly elected grand knight ments in the auditorium with the view plications for admission to the camp have James E. Colliflower. Past Grand Knight of increasing the income of the temple, been received. F. F. Mason, of Talbot Leo A. Rover was presented with a sil-among them being the installment of a Camp, and S. H. Rosenthal, of West-ver service in testimony of the esteem

Columbia Lodge, No. 28, which is having a number of accessions to the mem-bership and is reported to have a number of initiations planned for the ter will have its grand visitation Wed-nesday night. October 27.

Forthcoming Visitations.

November promises to be also an active Springs. Colorado. Befreshments of month in Pythian circles. Decatur sandwiches, coffee and cigars were Lodge's visitation is scheduled for No. served during the evening. A large atvember 8: Harmony's, November 11: tendance of members is expected at the Franklin Lodge, November 18, and the next meeting of the camp, the memberseries closing at Calanthe Lodge, the ship committee making special efforts home of Grand Chancellor Kimmel, No- to secure the presence of Woodmen at vember 22. Harmony Lodge announces the camp sessions, Refreshments will be an open meeting, following the routine served. Rituals covering the revised work of the visitation, in the form of an gree work are now being distributed anniversary celebration, for which an the head office and the members of Cenentertaining program is being planned. tral Camp's degree team are preparing This is the home lodge of Grand Prelate themselves for the work of initiating the Charles W. Henderson.

Rathbone-Superior Lodge.

Rathbone-Superior Lodge, No. 29, will have a class for the page rank Friday state that the lodge has work in the Decatur Lodge, No. 9, held an interestng session Monday night, which was addressed by L. C. Zerega, who told the lodge members about his sojourn in Canada the past summer, and Past Chancellor John A. Gottsman who some of the past sessions of Decatur Calanthe Lodge. No. 11, held its regular convention Monday night, opening at 7:30 o'clock, which will be the time opening for the winter months, it is announced. The meeting was well at-tended and several members of the grand were among the visitors. A number of important matters were discussed. Chancellor Commander George A. Comas requested the members who have been withholding applications for mempership during the summer to bring them the next convention which will be The palo committee reheld October ... ported that they expect to anounce candidates for the polo tenm at the # Grand Council to Meet.

At a meeting of the Grand Council Vednesday night, presided over by Grand Chancellor Kimmel, it was decided bers for the new lodge it is being planned to establish in Meunt Pleasant long lines that it is hoped will result in its institution in a few weeks. Union Lodge.

are Lecturer Perry P. Fatrick, it is stated, Die exemplified the unwritten work of the the order, and the reports of Grand Keeper of New York are invited to attend this Grand Master of Exhcequer Frank B. Crown showed the lodge to have been active in its Pythian duties the past year, for which the lodge was commend-ed by Grand Chancellor Kimmel. Grand Vice Chancellor John B. Dickman spoke about the work of the ways and means committee: Royal Vizier E. W. Heiss, of the Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan, detailed the plans of the coming ceremonial of the "Dokays"; Passed Maj. Bynum referred to the work of the Uniform Rank, and Past Grand Chancellor John Philip Meakin made an ad-dress on the order universal. A smoker followed the routine work of the visita-

Pythian Sisters.

The Past Chiefs' Association, Pythian regular monthly Sisters, will hold its meeting tomorrow night at the of the president, Mrs. Mary E. Mitchell, 719 G street southeast. The organization will entertain its members and friends with a box party the first Friday night in November in the lodge room of Rathbone Temple. The affair will be in charge of a committee headed by Mrs. Minnie Wolfsheimer. The monthly treat f the association to the inmates of the Washington Asylum Hospital last day was served by Mrs. Roberta Pres-cott, Mrs. Mary Mitchell, Mrs. Ida Crown and Mrs. Carrie Davis.

Friendship Temple, No. 9, Pythian Sisters, had a large attendance of mem-bers and visitors at its meeting Wednesday night. Several applications for membership were received and plans were discussed for a class initiation. After the lose of the temple those present joved a supper which was served by losing side in the recent membership contest, Mrs. Dentinger being in charge of the affair. The hall was beautifully musical program was given. An enjoyable feature of the evening was a min-cellaneous shower by the members of the tempe to the most excellent chief. Mrs. Guste Thodey, a bride of the past League summer. Among those present were the officers of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias, who attended in a body at the close of the visitation to Union Lodge.

Rathbone Temple, No. 8, Pythian Sisthe reports of the representatives to the ent. The officers of the councils are convention of the grand temple held in planning an ambitious program of soconvention of the grand temple held in planning an ambitious program of Tharlottesville, Vn., October 5 and 6, and cial and fraternal activities for The teckholders of the Knights of with a Halloween party the last Fil-Pythias Hall Association held a meet-day of the current month and Most Ex-ing Monday night for the purpose of con-cellent Chief Lola Marks appointed Mrs. mittee of enterlanment for that evening Mrs. Mot ka chose the following as her assistants Mrs. Sadie Berkman. Mrs. Kate Smith, Mrs. Roberta Prescott, Mrs. Action on Dalsy Wightman, Mrs. Martha Jarboe. Mrs. Della Nichels, Mrs. Emma Bynum, the Misses Harriet Little and Tillie Samuels and Messrs Pregestt, Motyka, Will-> grand temples. Pythian Sisters, to the grand temple at a beautifully appointed for its patriotic ideals, and referred to luncheon at her home on Randolph street. Wednesday. The table decorations were ample worthy of emulation in the standard bearer. pink roses and maid n-hair fern and the tice of the principles of Christian life, favors were dainty pink pin cushions in Miss Edna F. Hillyard, George H. O'Conthe form of slippers. Those present were nor, Matt Horne, and Fogarty's Car-Mrs. Mary E. Mitchell, Mrs. Carrie tra contributed the musical program.

Modern Woodmen of America.

A large attendance of members of Central Camp. No. 16015, occurred on Friday night at its regular meeting held Pernetual Building Association also made by State Deputy William Mc-Caffery, District Deputy H. H. Millard, State Physician John W. Sutherin, O. P. Parthemore, and James A. Moody, L. Coker and George R. Shields were reported confined to their homes by sickness. Application has been made for the admission of C. M. Hunter to the Rituals covering the revised decandidates being brought before the or-

Washington Camp.

At the meeting of Washington Camp, night. A page class was given the rank, No. 1184, Friday evening arrangements were completed for the entertainment and reception of Baltimore City Camp. No. 11361, to be given on the 29th of October ranks for conventions the remainder of the year. The lodge has in contemplation and its auxiliary. Martha Washington library Bishop of Baltimore. Eight priests Camp, Royal Neighbors of America. The of this city and Baltimore also received Baltimore Woodmen will bring with the degree. The ceremonies were most them their band and uniformed rank of impressive and were presided over by Foresters, coming by special train over Charles W. Darr, master of Maryland the electric line, and will be met at the and District station at Fourteenth street and New pliffers of the degree were Very Rev. York avenue by the degree team of George A. Dougherty, of the Catholic Washington Camp and excerted to the University: Francis P. Sheehy, Edward Washington Camp and escorted to the University: Francis P. Sheehy, Edward Old Masonic Temple, where they will P. Harrington, Daniel A. Edwards, Dr. be tendered the entertainment and ban-William B. Daly, Harry A. Hegerty, quet. The visit is in return for a recent and Thomas J. Trodden, sr. The fourth quet. The visit is in return for a recent and Thomas J. Trodden, sr. The fourth fraternal visit by Washington Camp to degree quartet, composed of Edward J the Baltimore Camp. The parade from McQuade, J. Frank Duggan, Robert the White House station will be under Howard, and Frank J. Mull the direction of Capt. Harry A. Walsh, Elwood E. Werner, organist, grand marshal, and Capt. P. E. Beach musical numbers. The stirring will be in command of the battalion of Foresters Hon. James W. Crooks, consul of Washington Camp, will welcome the visiting neighbors and responses will be made by Howard M. Emmons, clerk

Baltimore Camp, and others M. V. Shurtleff reported to Washington Camp Friday evening the serious iliness of George B. Tallman, a prominent member of the society who is employed at the Government Printing Office

C. C. N. Y. Smoker.

The Washington Chapter of the Asso ciate Alumni of the college of the City of New York will hold an informal meeting at the Cosmos Club on Saturday, Oc-This is the first meeting since its an-preside. The speakers of the evening are Prof. S. W. Stratton, director Bureau of Union Lodge, No. 22, held its annual Standards; Dr. Marcus Benjamin. Its reference to som grand visitation Wednesday night. Grand editor, National Museum, and Capt. Rob-the order. Miss ert Alton, '65, United States Fatent Office.

Activities of Knights of Columbus.

Interesting Services.

Rev. Father O'Hearn, of the Catholic University, will preach the sermon at the annual vesper service, to be held under the auspices of the Washington Chapter. Knights of Columbus, in St. Martin's Church, North Capitol and U streets. tonight at 7.30 o'clock. The members of the order will meet in school hall adjoining the church, at 7 o'clock, and march in a body to the church, with the fourth degree members in full regalia, acting as a guard of The Knights of Columb Society will render a special musical program. Dr. James Dickinson, director. Rev. Eugene A. Hannan, the pastor, who is a member of Washington Council, s co-operating with the officers of the chapter, to make the vesper service a notable feature. Rev. Clarence A. Wheeler is chaplain: Michael D. Schaef-er, chairman, and Joseph T. Fitzgerald, secretary of the chapter. The chaplains to participate in the services.

Spaiding Council Will Meet.

Spalding Council will meet next Thurs-lay evening at 8 o'clock. Several new spilications for membership will be pre-sented for the action of the council. sented for the action of the council. Grand Knight Dr. J. Rozier Biggs and Lecturer Merkling are co-operating with the entertainment committee for a special program of interesting features for

Potomne Council.

Potomac Council met on last Monday night, with Grand Knight Edward L. Tucker, presiding, Reports were received om Walter I. Plant, Choral Society; B. Fitzputrick, Framatic Club. Ben-imin F. Myers, Employment Bureau, jamin F. Myers, Employment Bureau, and William G. Freely, on Bowling

Presides First Time.

John J Keenan presided over his first meeting as grand knight of Keane Coun-cil, on Thursday night, and was heartily ters, at its meeting Friday night received greeted by the large membership pres-the reports of the representatives to the ent. The officers of the councils are acted upon a number of applications for season. Lecturer Thomas M. Gallagher membership. The temple will entertain and entertainment committee have in

Patriotic Address.

Judge Ashley M Gould delivered a forceful and elocaent address at the Dis-covery Day exercises held last Sunday night in Gonzaga College Hall. Judge lookd aroused the patriotic fervor of the large assemblage by his stirring tribute to the character, achievements and lofty ideals of the great Genoese naviga er. Chairman Leo A. Rover introduced Rev. Francis P. Donnelly, th. new president of Gonzaga College and rector of St. nor. Matt Horne, and Fogarty's Crones-

The third dance of the Knights of Columbus Intercouncil Dancing Assem-bly will be held at Rauscher's on Thanksgiving eve. Wednesday, November 24, at 9 p. m. Tickets, admitting lady and gentleman, are $2.00. Carthy is chairman; William N. Shreve. vice chairman; A. D. Brand, secretary, and John M. Tabler, treasurer of the committee. A special meeting of the com-

Presentation to Retiring Chief. moving-picture show and a bowling al- End Camp, were present and delivered and appreciation of the council for his short talks, the former also entertaining distinguished services as its retiring chief the assembly with an interesting assort- executive officer. Mr. Edward A. Voigt, installation as outside guard, will be in-stalled in office by District Deputy John A. Eckert at the next meeting of the # council.

Fine Entertainment Promised. Invitations have been posted to the entire membership of Carroll Council to at-tend its next meeting on Tuesday evening, also to the State and council off cers by Grand Knight Frank A. Kidd. and a record-breaking attendance is expected. An excellent program of enter-A testimonial will be presented to Knight William J. McGee at the meeting. the committee on testimonial consisting of Messrs. Patrick J. Haltigan. Clarence

Colford, and Redmond DeVaney. Get Highest Degree.

With Cardinal Gibbons and some of the leading members of the order present, the fourth degree, the highest in the order, was exemplified last Tuesday by the Knights of Columbus at the Bel vedere Hotel in Baltimore, when close to 200 men were raised to the honor Among the candidates were two bishops -the Right Rev. Thomas J. Shahan. Elwood E. Werner, organist, gave the Discovery Day was witnessed by dreds of the order who had already taken the highest degree. throne and was attended by the Hugh J. Monaghan, of Sts. Philip and James' Catholic Church, of Baltimore, and Rev. C. C. Rosensteel, of this city. His eminence was much interested his support to the undertakings of the Knights of Columbus. The drill team of Commander C. Eugene Edwards, and received the plaudits of the audience when an exhibition drill was given following the degree. One of the most brilliant nual banquet which was held in June. In the main ballroom of the Belvedere.

Dr. Frank Anderson, '71, U. S. N., will served as the guests desired from 9 served as the guests desired from 9 o'clock until midnight. A novel program listed the dances, each page bee applause with an exhibition fancy dance

Other Fraternal On Page Eight.